City & County Librarian

The recruitment campaign for this role is managed by the Public Appointments Service.

The Local Government sector in Ireland is made up of 31 Local Authorities and 3 Regional Assemblies. Local Authorities are the closest and most accessible form of Government to citizens. They have responsibility for the delivery of a wide range of services in their local area with a focus on making cities, towns and the countryside areas attractive places to live, work and invest.

Waterford City and County Council (Comhairle Cathrach agus Contae Phort Láirge) is the authority responsible for local government in the City & County of Waterford, Ireland. The organisation came into operation on 1st June 2014 after that year's local elections and is a merger of Waterford City Council and Waterford County Council. The mission of Waterford City & County Council is to make Waterford the best possible place for all its people and for those that wish to live, visit, work or invest here.

An opportunity now exists in Waterford City & County Council for the position of City & County Librarian. This is a senior management role within the Local Authority which includes determining the organisational framework of the library in what is a very challenging environment.

The City & County Librarian is charged with the responsibility for the planning and management of the library services across Waterford. The County & City Librarian also oversees the management of the Council's Arts Office, Cultural Quarter and Creative Ireland Programme and leads on a wide cultural remit across Waterford City & County.

The City & County Librarian holds responsibility for leading on policy implementation, service delivery and change management in a dynamic and goal driven environment. The role requires strong leadership, innovation, agility and a commitment to customer service, alongside a high level of professional library, cultural and management skills, which include a strategic and operational element while maintaining value for money.
